FIRESIDES

2nd Sunday Fireside March 10th at 7 pm

"Come Unto Christ" presented by Sailiata Fano and his AMANAKI family. AMANAKI has taken the powerful influence of music and use it as a means to share the message of our Savior, Jesus Christ. AMANAKI's songs are composed and arranged by Sailiata Fano, inspired by the amazing Christ-like examples of many. Amanaki is the Tongan word that means "hope". In that spirit, AMANAKI hopes that their music will strengthen those who follow the Savior, give hope to those who seek the Savior, and perhaps remind those who may have forgotten the Savior, that He loves them.

4th Sunday Fireside March 24th at 7 pm

Debra P. Washburn works in both clinical and business settings to help people understand the power of self-management in creating productive, joyful lives. After many years working as a management and marketing consultant in the financial services industry, she trained and licensed as a marriage and family therapist. She writes and speaks extensively on understanding how to build fulfilling relationships both within the family and in the workplace. In addition she has developed a focus on helping children thrive by learning a strong work ethic that builds self-esteem and prepares them for productive and rewarding adult lives. She did her undergraduate work in Education at BYU and her graduate work in Clinical Psychology at Pepperdine University. She has served on many boards since moving back to Utah and enjoys being involved in the community.
